

CONTRIBUTION GUIDELINES

Scope

The Indian Journal of Arbitration Law (“IJAL”) is a biannual journal, published in January and July of each year. IJAL strives to provide a platform for discussion of international as well as national developments in the field of arbitration. IJAL regularly publishes contributions from experienced practitioners whilst giving due importance to theoretical work of academicians at the same time. Each issue contains (i) articles, which analyse topics of permanent interest from major national jurisdictions as well as contemporary international issues, (ii) notes, which cover topical recent developments and on-going debates in the field and (iii) book reviews. The following is an indicative list highlighting the scope of the journal:

- International Commercial Arbitration;
- Institutional Arbitration;
- Multilateral Arbitration Conventions;
- Inter-State Disputes subject to Arbitration;
- Investor-State Dispute Settlement Mechanism;
- Investment Treaty Arbitration;
- Alternative Dispute Resolution Mechanisms;
- Jurisdiction-specific issues in Arbitration;
- Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of Other States; and
- UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration.

12. The manuscript may be co-authored by a maximum of three authors.

Editorial Policy

1. Authors, upon submission, must communicate their acceptance of the following conditions:
 - The work, upon publication, becomes the property of National Law University, Jodhpur;
 - Permissions for subsequent publication/reprint and/or derivative works must be obtained from IJAL.
2. IJAL follows a comprehensive blind review procedure. IJAL shall endeavour to keep the authors informed about the current status of their manuscript as it goes through each stage of review.
3. IJAL retains complete discretion over acceptance/rejection of manuscripts.
4. IJAL does not entertain requests for advance decisions based on abstracts, topic proposals or outlines. Editorial decisions shall be based solely on review of the final manuscripts submitted by the authors.
5. Post-review, manuscripts may be returned to the authors with suggestions related to substance and/or style. Acceptance of a manuscript may be made contingent on incorporation of such suggestions.
6. Authors of accepted articles are entitled to receive a complimentary printed copy of the issue in which their article has been published.
7. IJAL reserves the right to request copies of any resources or authorities cited in the manuscript.
